1. Applicant's election with traverse of claims 1 and 20-23 in the paper filed January 5, 2005 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the claims 1 and 20-23 are now generic. This is not found persuasive because applicant is to identify a species by the Figures, as presented in the restriction requirement. This applicant has not done. Species are determined by the Figures, not by claims. Claims 2-9 and 11-19 are presently withdrawn, but applicant must respond properly by electing a species by identifying one of the species defined by Figures in response to this action.

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The term "fingers/studs" or "studs/fingers" is indefinite, as the slash renders the terms of different scope. A single consistent term should be employed to define the structure intended.

Appropriate correction is required.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1 and 20-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, line 9 and claim 22, line 2, "said elastic band" (singular) is inconsistent with "at least one elastic band" of claim 1. This inconsistency is also found in the non-elected claims and should be corrected. In claim 21, the term "finger/studs" is indefinite, as the alternative provided by the slash renders the term indefinite. Is such a single structure, or an alternative? The terms

Art Unit: 3728

“fingers/studs” is found in the non-elected claims as well and should be corrected. In claim 22, line 5, “arranged for mate therewith” is ungrammatical.

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 20 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brouwer (5,531,966). Brouwer discloses a case comprising a housing (10) having a hollow interior and a channel (32, 42) proximate a perimeter of the housing at two sides thereof, a first end cap (43) and a second end cap (30) and at least one elastic band (50), the first end cap fixedly secured and the second end cap releasably secured.

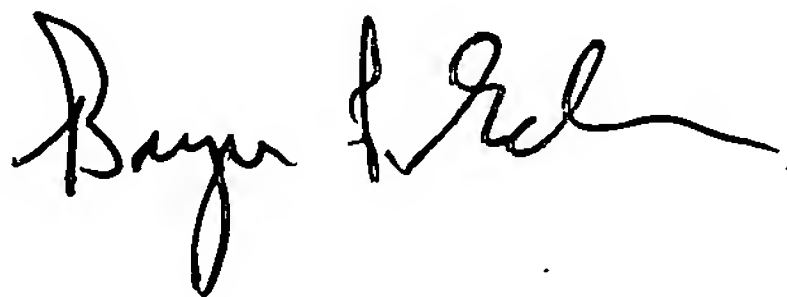

7. Claim 21 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Dependent claim 22 would also then be allowable.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Shown are cases with elastic bands.
